SALE OF ZOLA'S NOVELS.

Nana Heads the List with a Total of 155,000 Coples.

Here are some facts and figures about the popular French novelist, Zola, according to Plunder. Of " La Bete Humaine " 45,000 copies were sold on the first day. This high figure has not been a: tained since the appearance of "Nana."

The whole Rougon-Macquart Series of fiction has now filled over one million of volumes, beginning with the "Fortune des Rougon." This ran only to 22,000 copies, the "Curee" obtaining 33,000; copies, the "Curee" obtaining 33,000; the "Ventre de Paris," 30,000; the "Conquete de Plassans," 22,000; the "Abbe Mouret," 44,000; "Eugene Rougon, 21,000; until the "Assommor," with a tirage of 117,000 copies, put the "hall mark" on the author's popularity. The "Page d'Amour" ran to 70,000 volumes, but the apogee was reached by the 155,000 copies of "Nana." Since "Nana," the highest number of copies has been reached by "La Ferre," with 88,000 in all, and including the first day's issue of the "Bete Humains," Charpentier has published 1,031,000 volumes signed by Emile Zola. The author receives $1,000 for every novel published in feuilleton form.

A New Comic Opera to Be Produced in Philadelphia.

There will be wailing and immentation among the baid-heads. If they possessed hair they would tear it, and if their teeth were their own they would gnash them. Urquhart, the stately, the June-esque Isabelle, is going to leave the comic opera stage. She has announced her intention of accepting a dramatic engagement. For a long time Miss Irabelle has been dissatisfied with comic opera. County & Co., 233 Broadway. comic opera is so unratisfactory. I have only a little bit of a voice, and I have used tenough. I want to adopt dramatic work because it is more lasting.

"Comic opera queens don't endure long. Young girls are always coming to the front, and crowding out the other. for it is youth that comic opera lovers want to see. If you sing too long for the public, people say.

'Oh, she must be ninety: I remember her years ago!' And there you are. I have a great love for the stage. It is greater today than ever. You know that at one time I was a member of Lawrence Barrett's company, and then I joined Augustin Daly. I was with him for some time, and appeared in a number of his plays. Comic opera pays better than the drama, but it isn't as nice." Miss Urquhart's views are eminerally sensible, but the bald-heads are just selfish enough to lament. Think of Urquhart constitution has recreased across constitutions. wigning her correcons comic opers costumes to the usst. It must, however, be admitted that some of these costumes don't take up very much room.

Philadelphia is to have a new comic opera next veek. It is called "Amina," and was composed by Frederick Wink. Wink is a very wicked name for anybody to possess who hopes to do work with dear old, chubby Philadelphia. "Amina" will be brought out at the Broad Street Theatre, and invitations by the score are being circulated among New Yorkers.

Manager E. G. Gilmore has had a little "scrap" with Jerome Carty, the legal representative of the amiable and manageable Margaret Mather. Mr. Carty insisted that Mr. Gilmore should give him a voucher for all the money paid to the railroad companies for Miss Mather chring the pastesson. The tickets didn't satisfy Mr. Carty. Mr. Gilmore retoried—but no, there is no use telling what Mr. Gilmore retored.

Henry E. Dixey is to revive "Adonis" during the Summer months at the Columbia Theatre. Chicago. He will be supported by the members of "The Seven Ages" company. "Adonis" hasn't enjoyed a very long rest. Its resurrect.on came quickly.

"The Gondoliers" does not seem to have been accepted in Manchester, England, without a tew ifs and buts. One critic writes: 'I am not going to deny Mr. Gilbert's claim to rank as a leading humorist, but I distinctly affirm that with the wheat we get a large amount of Gilbertian chaff."

There will be 191 people in the Duff Comic Opera Company that is to present "Pina-fore" at the Academy of Music next week. Forty justruments will be used in the orches-tra. The production will be exactly like that at the Auditorium in Change.

How a Murder Was Discovered by a Signature.

SYNOPSIS OF CHAPTER I. William J. Quelch, accompanied by a friend named Corser, calls at an insurance office for some information regarding his policy. A week later, the agent reads of Mr. Quelch's number in Autems its weeks later, and man claiming to be Mr. Quelch's trother, calls and formands the insurance uponsy. The agent employes something wrong and puts off the claim. Hetschive Wylle is place to the case.

Mr. Write set to work at once. By means | for disguising his identity, for James Walter Quelch's brother. A strange circumstance, however, was that everyhody at Braxby—the Quelches' native place—was surprised to hear that James was still alive. They all had heard years ago of his death, and none of them seemed to have entertained any doubt as to its truth. Mr. Wyise was inclined, however, to regard the reported decease of James as a device of himself and his friends to prevent any attempt to punish him for his offense.

Having discovered all he could at Braxby. Mr. Wyise was to far as it ment to punish him for his offense.

Having discovered all he could at Braxby. Mr. Wyise was to far as it went, a confirmation of Mr. Haddem's theory that the two ware really one and this same. Shon, is a streat off the Rue St. Honors.
